SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. In the fall of 1950, earth drilling work, under the supervision of Soviet and Bulgarian oil experts, was conducted two kilometers southwest of the village of Tulenovo (former Kalatsikoi, KK 6635).
2. On the first attempt they reached a depth of 950 meters without results; on the second attempt they had no success. The third time, in May 1951, at a depth of an additional 350 meters they struck oil. Details as to the quantity and capacity were not known by informant.

25X1A [REDACTED] reports the discovery of oil in the Dobruczha area.
